

Terhune Orchards-

- Family run business
- Fruit and vegetable farm
- Open to the public
- Care for our land, our community and our future

Sustainable use of the land

- Open space and farmland preservation
- Work with Natural Resource Conservation and Soil Conservation District.
- Techniques such as cover crops and crop rotation

Water conservation

- grow crops well suited to NJ
- Use of technology
- drip irrigation, monitors, sensors, weather station, satellite computer network

Innovation

- attend conferences
- share expertise
- plant new varieties
- barn raising with community
- solar panels
- energy efficiency

Methods

- Certified organic
- Integrated pest management
- Ongoing education

Weather and climate change

NEWA- Network for environmental and weather applications at Cornell University

Diversity of crops

For example- 35 apple varieties, 5 types of carrots, 25 of tomatoes, 30 of squash

Grow for market

Communicate

- Open to the public
- Relationship with our community
- Seasonal newsletter
- Weekly email
- Facebook, instagram and twitter (follow us!)

Education

- School tours
- Seasonal Newsletter
- Read and explore series
- Read and pick series
- Summer camp

Thanks!

